S. H. & H. Chapman

Dear Sirs:

I have not recd those copies. Have they been sent? I am in no hurry only I thought it possible that they might have failed to reach me since you spoke of sending them Dec. 14. Owing to the condition of my money matters I don't think you had better send me any thing until there is an improvement, which is possible in a few months, except cents of the dates already given. Please give me the relative difference in the scarcity and value of an 1823 cent, straight date and an 1823 over 22. What should you say an unc.

cent of either date and in fine condition would be worth?
I should much like this information.

Yours Truly
C. H. Brown.

Do you want to sell that 1887 gold proof set We recently sold you? If so let us know your price & we will advise our customer can if we cannot effect sale.
1823 Cent seems about as rare for as any perfect date and for fine they run from $3 up, but we could give you an idea if we only could see the piece in question.
Do you want gold proof sets of 1861. 1869, 1870 @ 65 a set if the three are taken.
Wishing you a Happy New Year, we remain

Very Respectfully

Dear Sirs:

When you send boxes you may include with the rest the new silver proof set for 1892. Can you also send me a priced catalogue of the Bennell sale at N. Y. on Dec 22-'91? Don't forget to give me the information sought in a previous letter about the 1823 cop. cent.

Yours Very Truly

H. A. Brown

East Northfield, Mass, Jan. 11, '92.

L. K. & K. Chapman,

Dear Sirs

Your package come all right. I have selected enough to come to 107,48 for which I will send check in a few days. As I wrote you before I do not feel able to take any thing at present except cents. In regard to the selling of the 1854 gold set I hardly know what to say. Will perhaps let you know later on. Should you send me at any time some more cents you may include a set of proof coins taking the 1 cent copper, 5 cent nickel 10, 25, 50 and 1 dollar pieces (6) Also 50 more cent boxes.

Yours Truly
C. H. Brown.

Mr A. Brown Esq

Dear Sir.

We send you as above some new stock in fine cents and hope you will find them to aid you in filling your set. We sent them by Adams Exp. this day, prepaid addressed to Mr A Brown, Esq. East Northfield, Mass. We expect to leave the City for a few weeks next Thursday but if you should conveniently get them on Tuesday do not hurry as they can come as labor. No hurry for payment if not at present convenient. Drop us a postal on their receipt & say if you will return more information tomorrow.
